DESCRIPTION

This fabulous furnished one bedroom apartment has been renovated to an extremely high standard, and provides generous storage. It has the added benefit of an outdoor balcony with amazing views. The furnishings are contemporary in style to suit the modern feel of the apartment.

The building is located in an enviable position on Thayer Street which is the continuation of Marylebone High Street, going south.

Marylebone High Street is one of the most popular shopping and eating high streets in Central London with it's high end boutiques and bustling restaurants and bars.

The area is well served by public transport, including Bond Street and Baker Street Underground Stations, which are a short walk away.
